

Discover Mandalay Beach

One of the most beautiful beaches in the Walpole area that is accessible by two-wheel-drive. The beach is named after the Norwegian barque Mandalay, wrecked there in 1911. At times, parts of the wreck are visible above the sand.

Must see

Mandalay Beach is a great stop en route between Manjimup and Walpole for its stunning beach scenery and the opportunity to glimpse the wreck of the Mandalay. This area is popular with anglers, but even if you don't fish, it's worth the visit for the spectacular views of the Southern Ocean and Chatham Island, which looms out of the water three kilometres offshore.

Getting there

Mandalay Beach is 18 kilometres west of Walpole. Turn off South Coast Highway at Crystal Springs and follow the winding gravel road for eight kilometres to the beach.

Travelling time?

35 minutes from Walpole.

What is there?

This is a very beautiful spot with boardwalks down to the beach, historical information and interpretation, whalewatching lookouts and toilets.

Best season

This is an attractive spot all year round.

Fees

National park entry fees apply. Please refer to the Park visitor fees brochure.

These fees contribute to the provision and maintenance of recreation facilities and visitor services in this park.

Caring for Mandalay Beach

Be wise Respect this unique environment and leave it as you found it.
